AUSTRIAN LAKES AND MOUNTAINS

Saturday 7th June - Monday 16th June 2025

Salzburgerland is the name often given to the stunning region surrounding Salzburg in Austria.

This is a dramatic mountainous region with beautiful lakes and wonderful vistas.

We'll spend four nights in this wonderful region, exploring well-known landmarks such as Berchtesgaden, Zell Am See, Mondsee and many more, while also getting off the beaten track to discover lesser known gems.

Quick Facts

10 days (9 nights)

~2000 miles

4 countries

An outdoor seating area with several large white umbrellas and blue armchairs arranged around a table. In the background, there is a lake with a fountain and green trees under a clear blue sky.

Day 1 - 255 miles

Today you will take your channel crossing (the night before if taking an overnight crossing), and we will meet and greet you at our lakeside hotel on the outskirts of the city of Koln.

You can either enjoy the facilities at the hotel or head into the city to check out the sights and enjoy a meal in one of the many restaurants.

A narrow street in Nuremberg, Germany, lined with colorful half-timbered buildings. The buildings have exposed wooden frames and various colored facades (black, red, yellow, orange). There are flower boxes under the windows and a cobblestone street.

Day 2 - 260 miles

Our first day driving will take us along the fast autobahn network, stopping for lunch and a peruse at a superb niche cars museum, complete with glass workshops, boutique shops and a lovely restaurant. We'll finish the day at a superb hotel near to Nuremburg.

A photograph of the interior of the Audi Museum in Ingolstadt. The scene shows a modern, multi-level exhibition space with a glass railing. A man and a woman are leaning on the railing, looking at a red Audi sports car on a display platform. In the background, other cars are visible on different levels, and a large digital display shows a map of Germany with city names like Hannover, Kassel, Gießen, Frankfurt, Köln, Füssen, and Frankfurt. The lighting is bright and modern.

Day 3 - 225 miles

Today we'll stop at the famous Audi Museum at Ingolstadt for viewing and a wonderful lunch. Whether or not Audi is your marque, the restaurant is excellent!! After, we'll be heading for our final destination and hotel for four nights in the wonderful Salzburger region.

A photograph taken from a cable car, looking down over a vast, scenic mountain landscape. The foreground shows the cable car's structure and cables. Below, a deep blue lake is nestled in a valley, surrounded by dense green forests. In the distance, majestic mountains with patches of snow rise against a clear blue sky.

Day 4/5/6

We'll spend three days exploring the area by way of circular driving routes, with the luxury of returning to the same hotel every night.

Destinations will include the Salzburg lakes, Berchtesgaden, Rossgeld Scenic Road, Zell Am See and a trip to Salzburg is possible if you would like.

An aerial photograph of a mountain valley. The foreground shows a lush green valley with several winding asphalt roads. In the background, there are large, rugged mountains with patches of snow and a clear blue sky.

Day 7 - 214 miles

We'll leave our Austrian hotel today, heading south first to The Katchsberg Pass and Gmund, a lovely town to stroll around and also home to Europe's only private Porsche museum.

This is the town where the first 356 was built. After, we'll be heading over the famous Grossglockner pass and heading to our last Austrian hotel of the tour.

A landscape photograph showing a town with red-roofed houses and a church spire in the foreground. A blue lake is visible in the middle ground. In the background, there is a large, rugged mountain range under a clear sky.

Day 8 - 200 miles

A blast across Bavaria today. Excursions can include the town of Augsburg and the BMW museum before heading for our hotel near Ulm.

Day 9 - 230 miles

Our last day will take us up the 'Rhine Romanticism Route', stretching from Wiesbaden to Koln and lined with numerous historical and scenic highlights.

Day 10 - 255 miles

Today we enjoy our last breakfast on the tour and make our way back to our early evening channel crossings.
