Day 1

264 miles - approx. 3.5hrs driving time

We'll take our Eurotunnel crossing in the morning and head south on the French Autoroutes to Le Mans, our first stop-over on our trip.

We will meet you at our hotel, and a group meal will be organised for those who would like to partake - an excellent opportunity to meet and get to know your fellow travellers.

Day 2 - Le Mans 24hr

283 miles - approx. 4hrs driving time

Our road trip starts in earnest with a trip to the Le Mans 24hr racetrack, 90% of which is on public roads. Take a few laps on this legendary route, with racing-track road markings and fixtures.

We will follow this up with a trip to the Le Mans 24hr museum, which is stacked full of cars from the history of the race.

After lunch here, we will take the fast Autoroutes to our next hotel in the Bordeaux wine region.

Day 3 - St. Emillion

182 miles - approx. 3hrs driving time

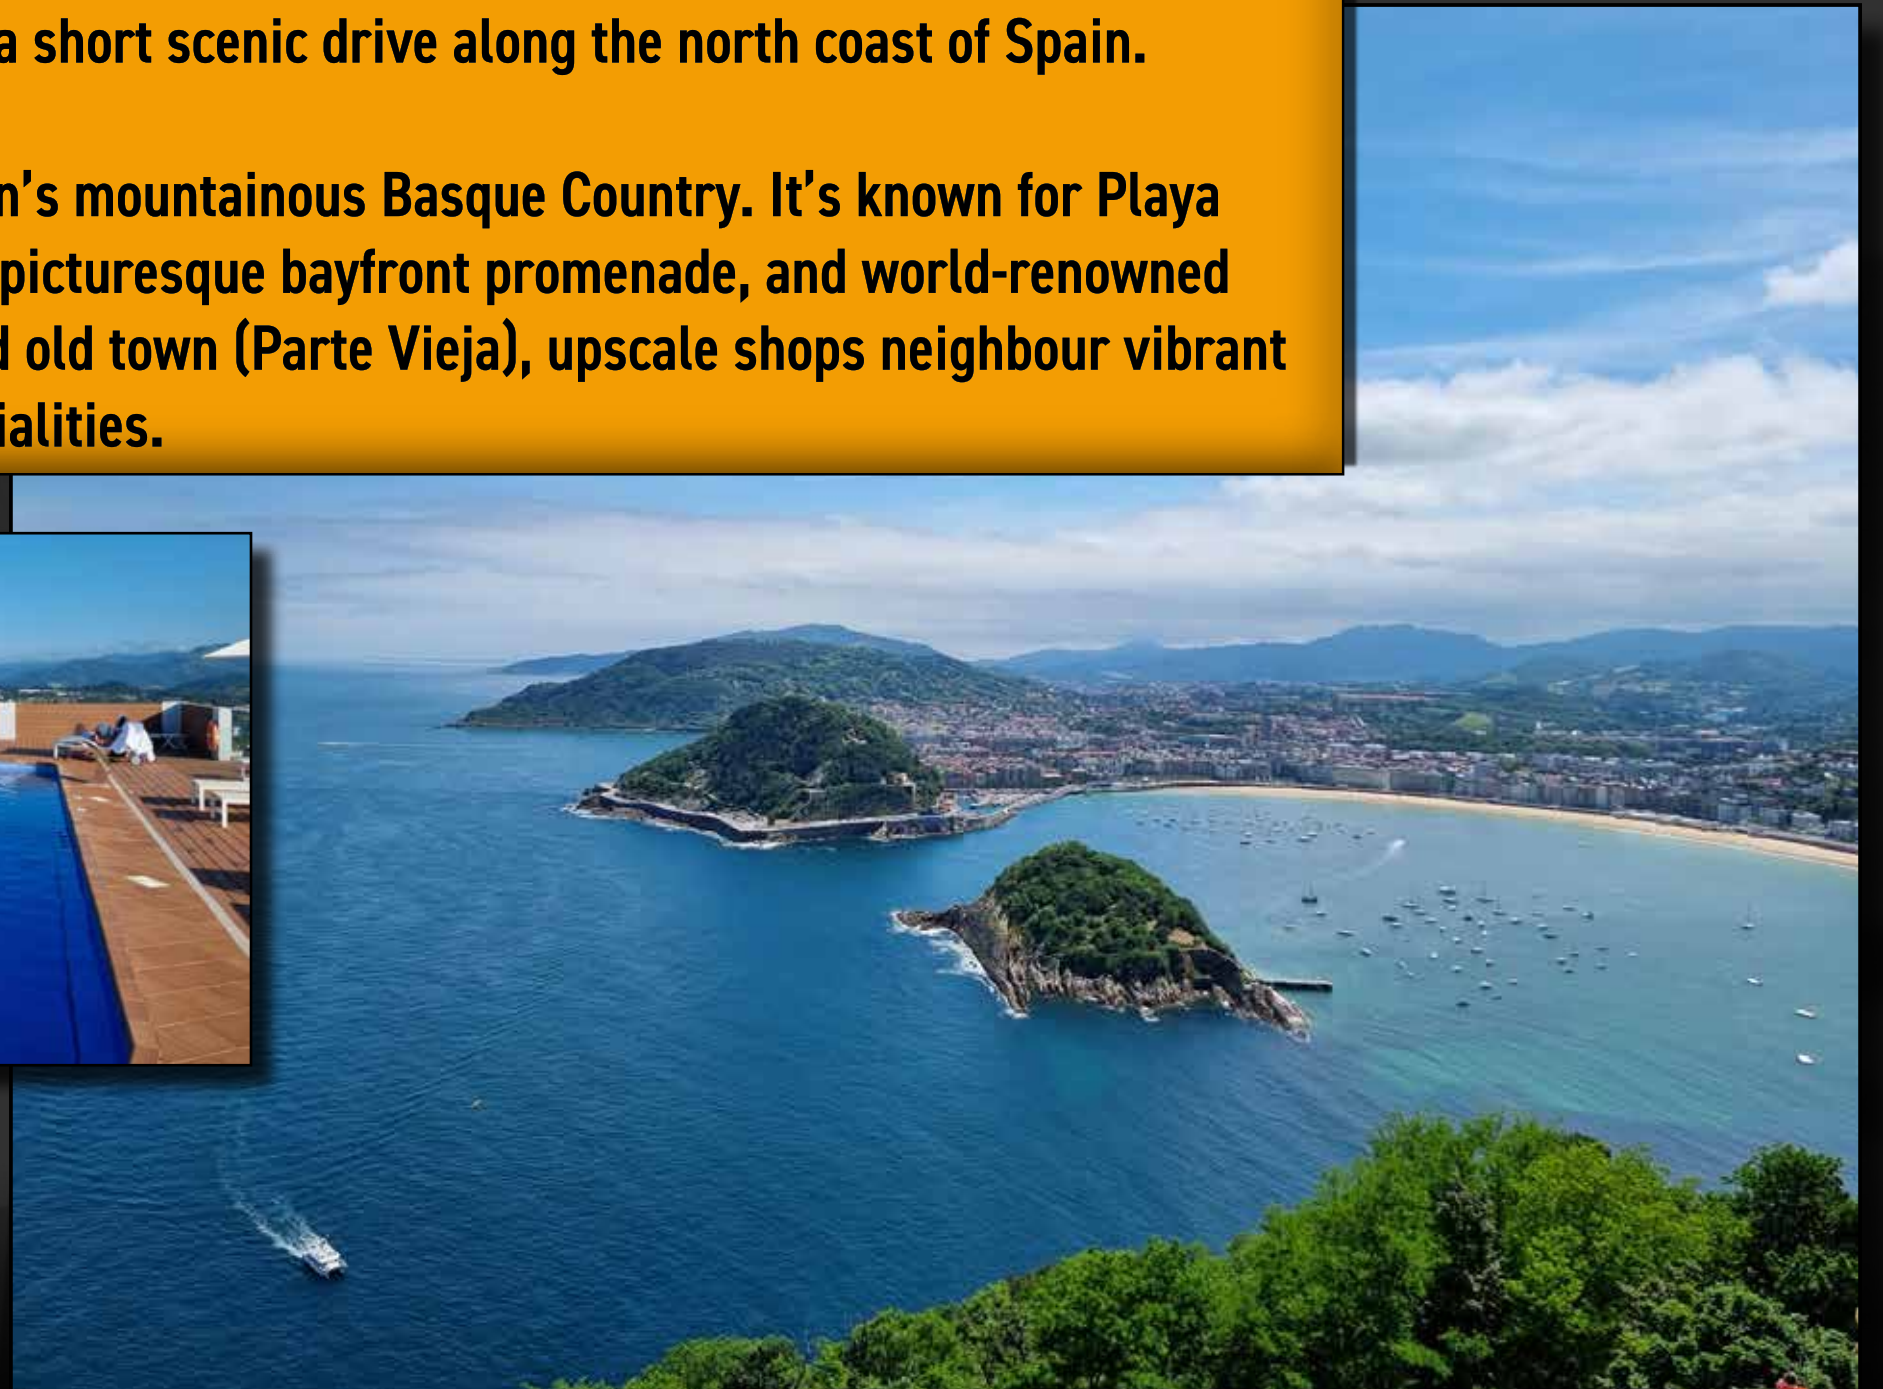

In the morning we will visit the beautiful wine town of St. Emillion, set in the stunning countryside of the Dordogne. This is a beautiful small town with sweeping views across the surrounding vineyards. After lunch we spend our last afternoon (for a while) on the French autoroutes, getting over the Spanish border to our hotel in the wonderful Spanish seaside town of Donostia-San Sebastian.

Day 4 - Rest day in Donastia-San Sebastian

Our two night stay here will be in a fantastic hotel with bay views. You can explore the old town, relax on the beach, pamper yourself at the hotel spa and swimming pool or do a short scenic drive along the north coast of Spain.

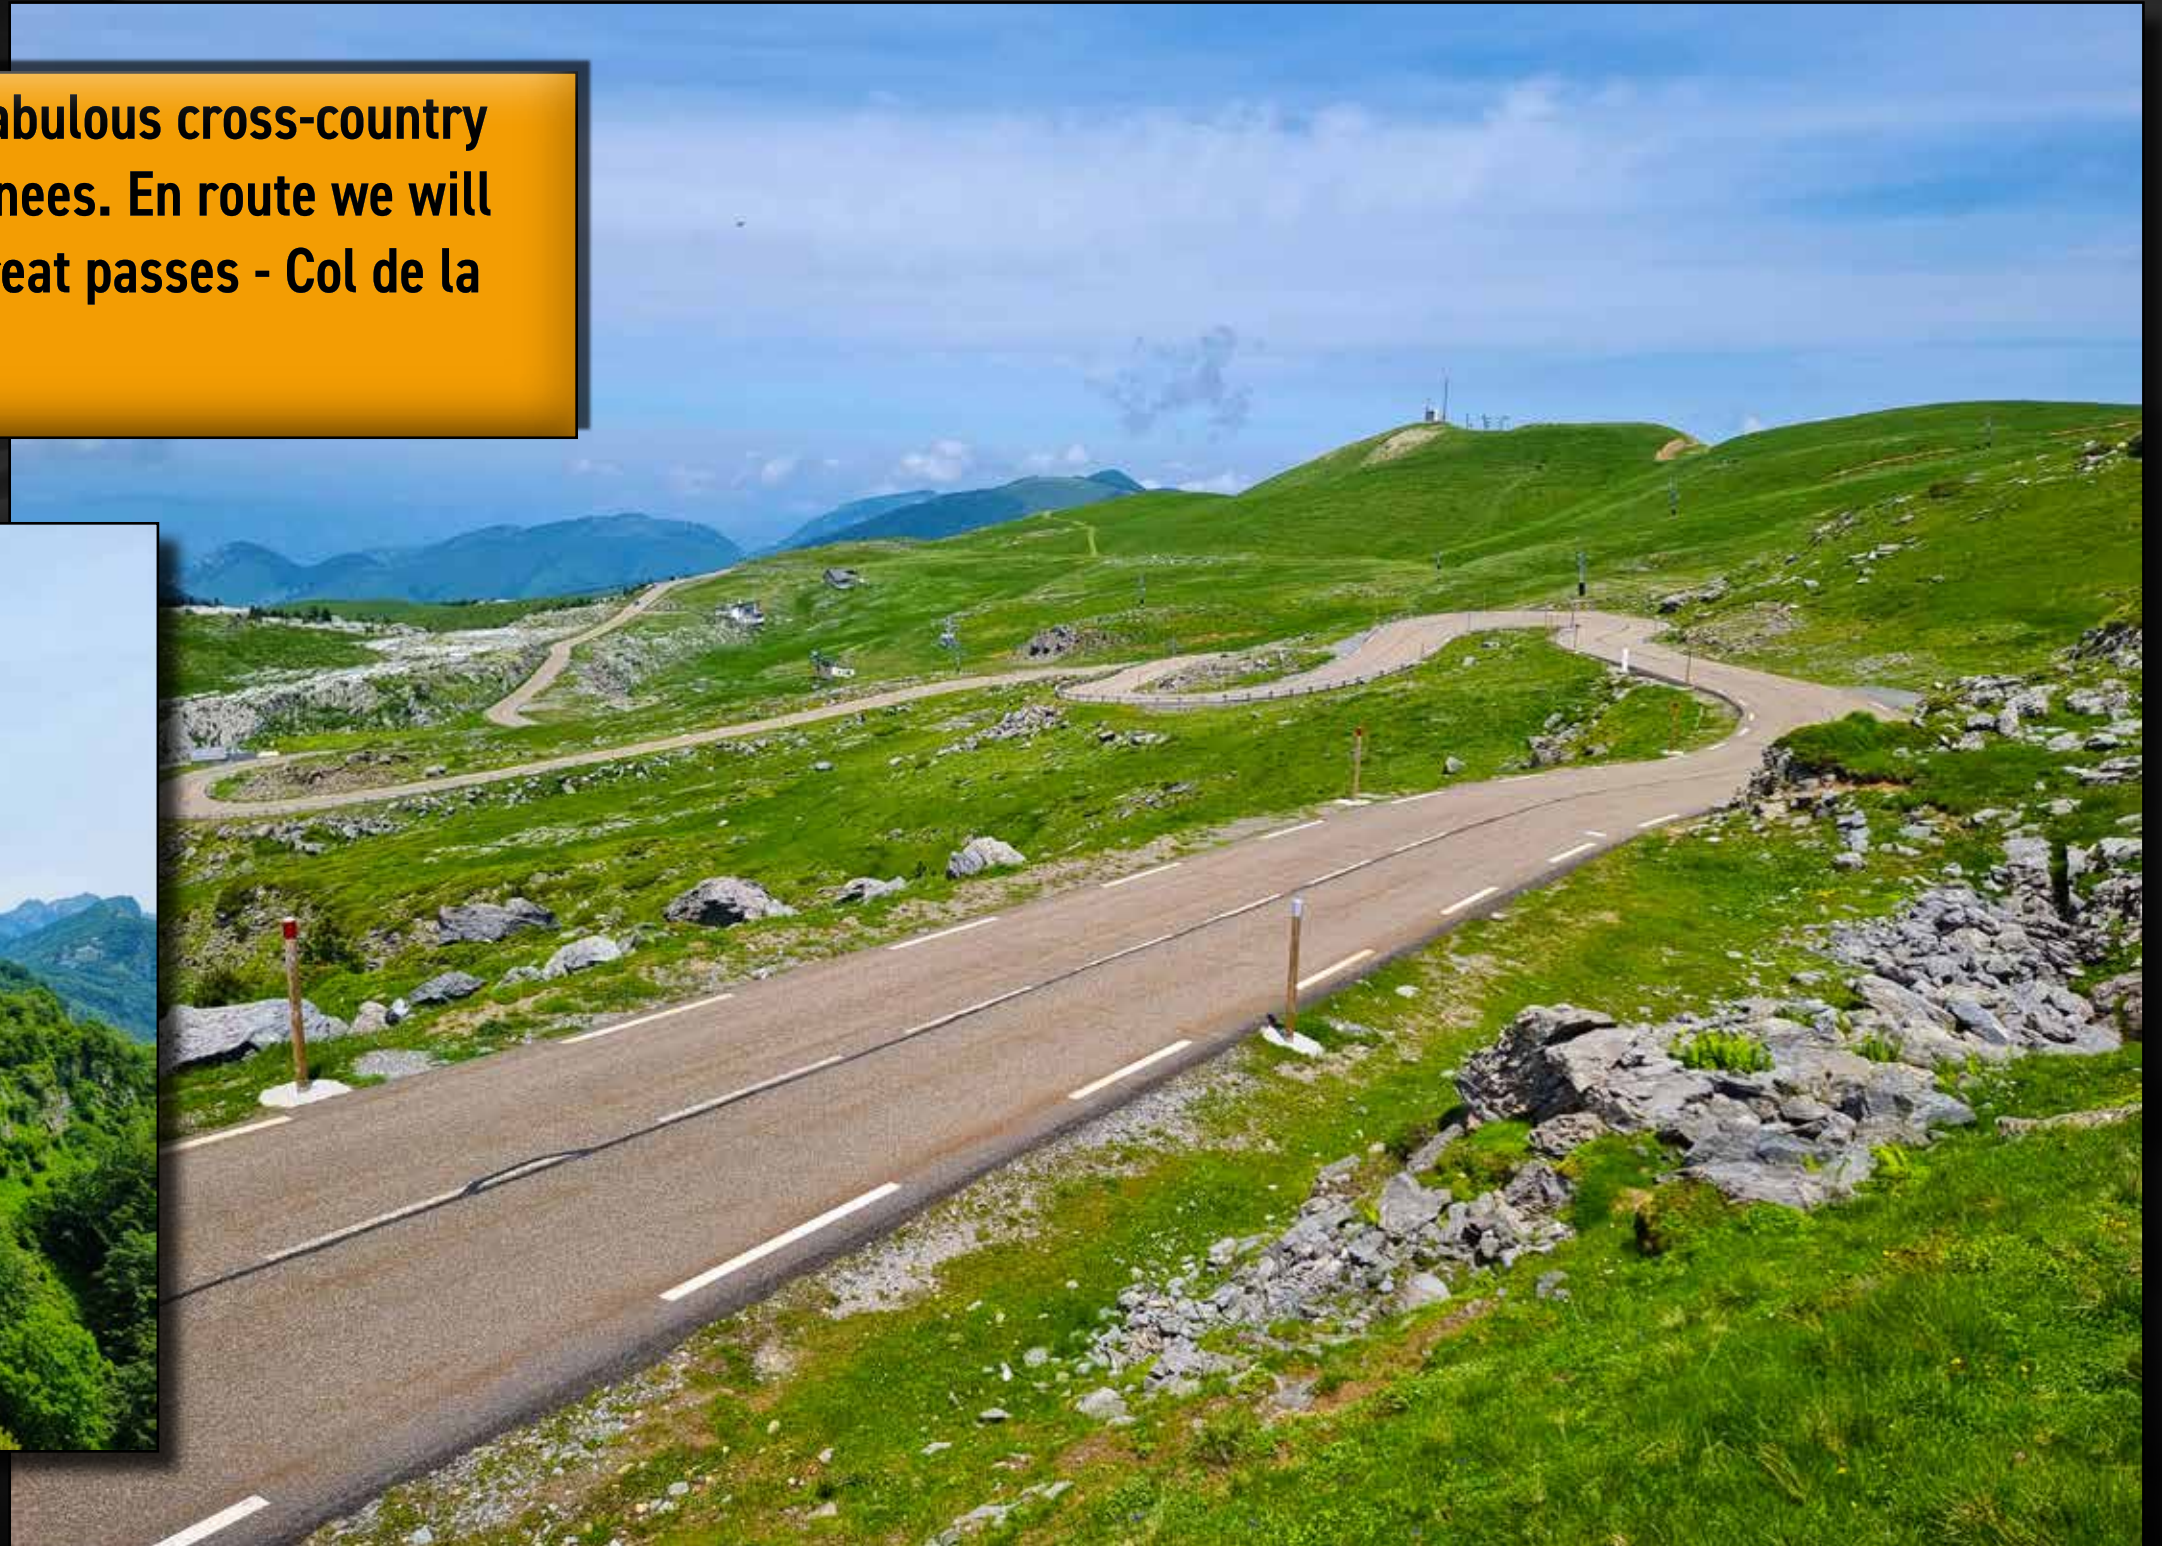

San Sebastián is a resort town on the Bay of Biscay in Spain's mountainous Basque Country. It's known for Playa de la Concha and Playa de Ondarreta, beaches framed by a picturesque bayfront promenade, and world-renowned restaurants helmed by innovative chefs. In its cobblestoned old town (Parte Vieja), upscale shops neighbour vibrant pintxo bars pairing local wines with bite-size regional specialities.

Day 5 - Into The Pyrenees!

168 miles - approx. 3hrs driving time

Today the adventure starts in earnest, with a fabulous cross-country drive through the foothills of the western Pyrenees. En route we will cross the French border twice and drive two great passes - Col de la Pierre St Martin and Col du Somport.

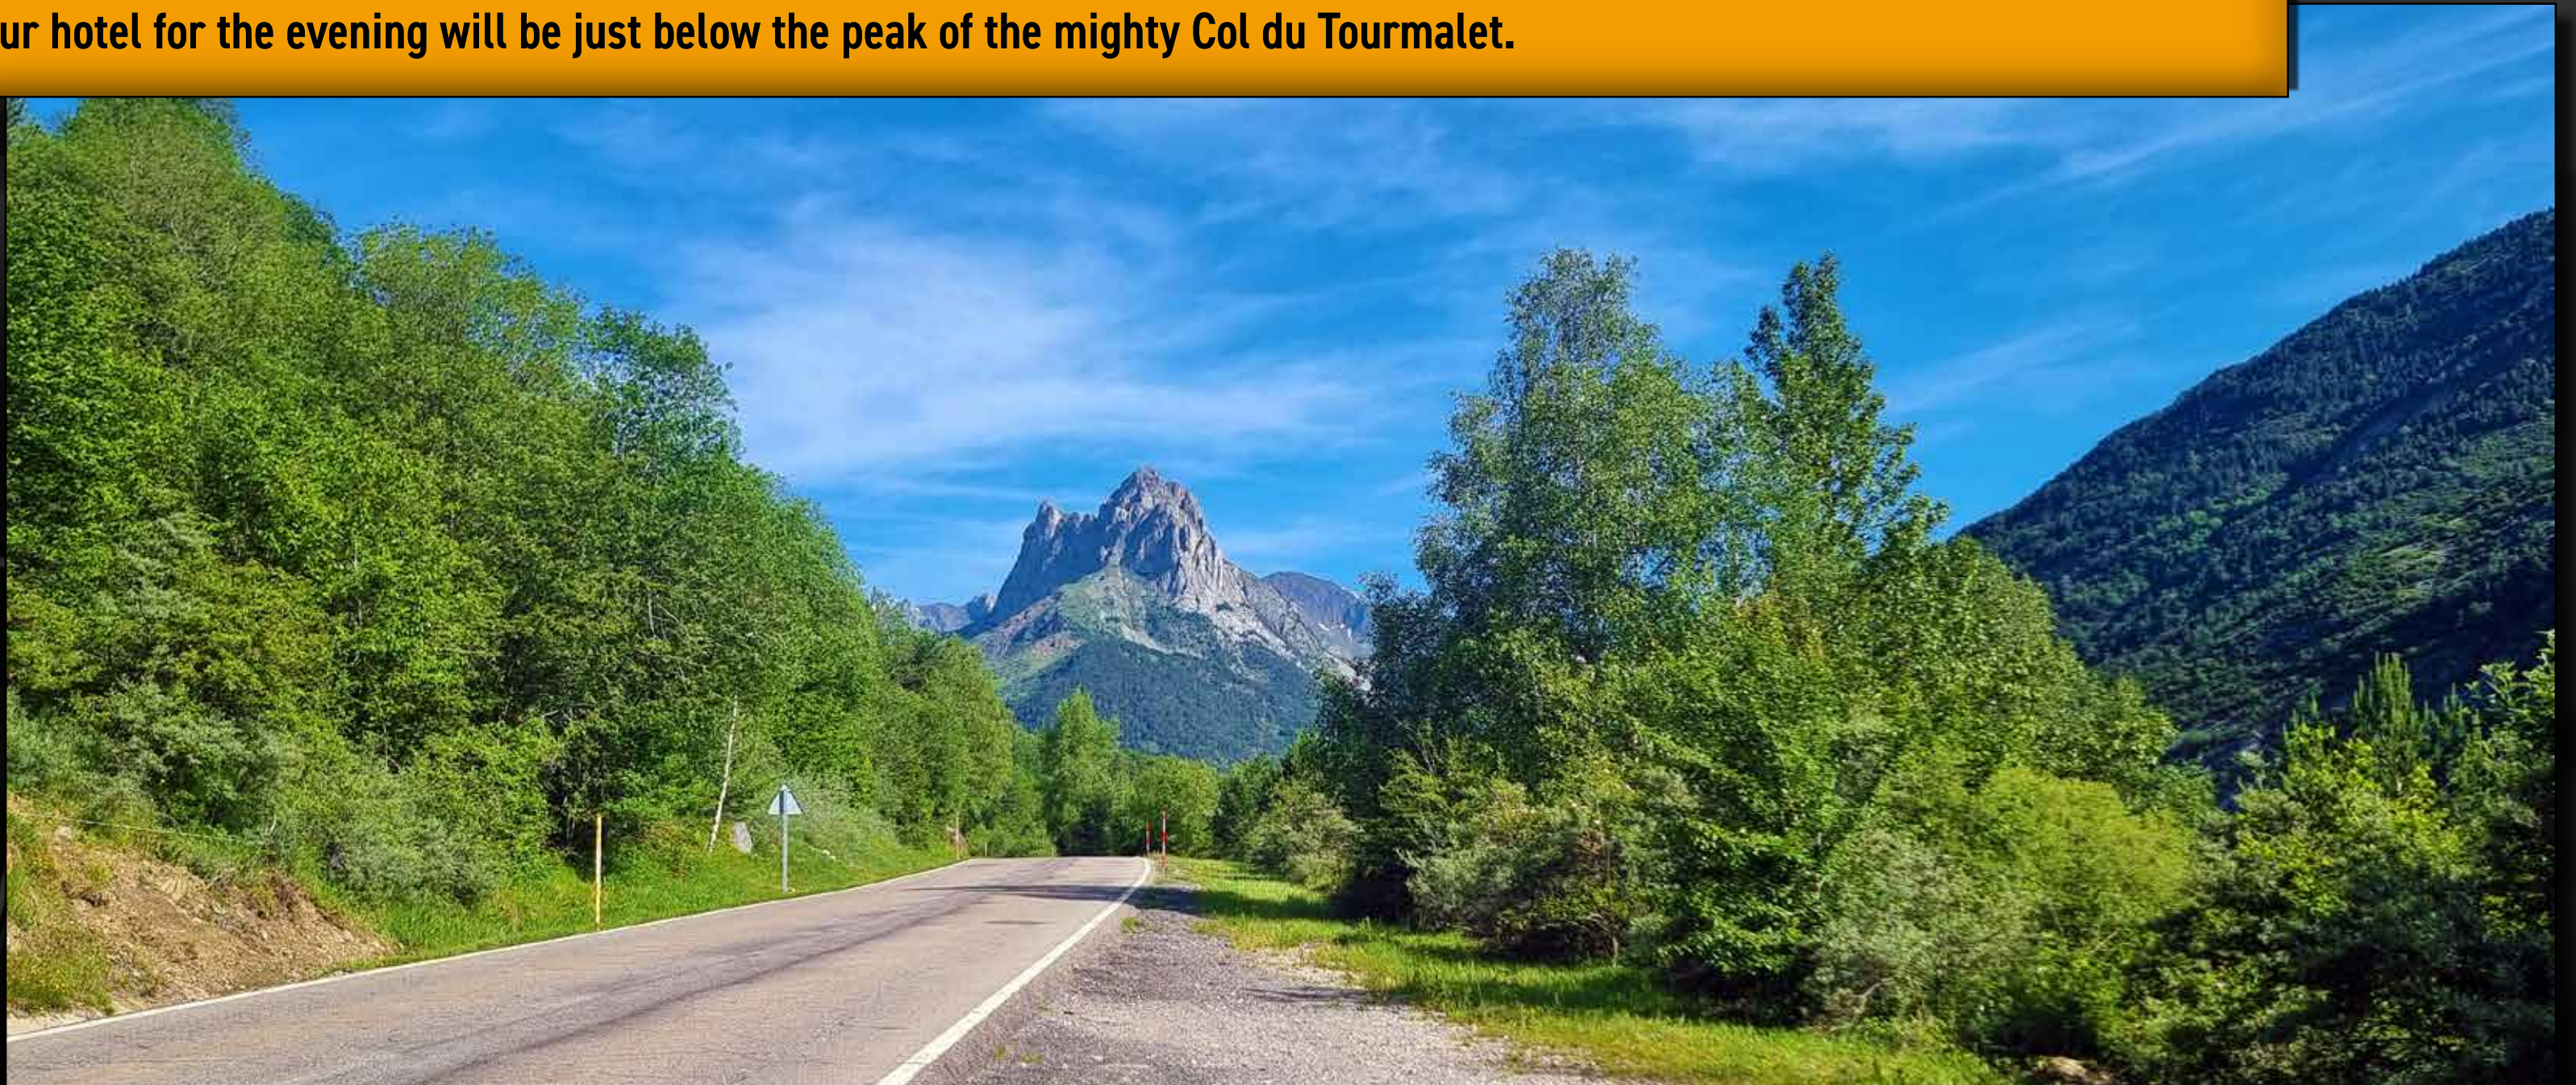

Day 6 - The Big Passes Of The Pyrenees

168 miles - approx. 3hrs driving time

Lots of brilliant driving today, with four of most spectacular passes in The Pyrenees - Col du Pourtalet, Col d'Aubisque, Col du Soulor and Col du Tourmalet.

Our hotel for the evening will be just below the peak of the mighty Col du Tourmalet.

Day 7 - Day Off In The Pyrenees

Today is a day with less driving but the option of plenty of excursions. Whether you take the cable car up to the local peak, visit the beautiful village and falls of Gavarnie or enjoy hiking in the local area, there is plenty to do!

Day 8 - Lakes & Mountains

72 miles - approx. 2.5hrs driving time

Today we're heading over the Col D'Aspin with a lunch break in Arreau. This is a pretty little town in a scenic surrounding.

In the afternoon we will head up the Col Cap Du Long, a fantastic driving road with the longest dam in the Pyrenees at the top, with some absolutely epic views!

Day 9 - Ainsa, Benasque and the N260

140 miles - approx. 3hrs driving time

We've been on and off the famous N260 for a lot of the trip, but today we undertake a particularly scenic section, as we head through canyons, mountain valleys and passes.

Our first stop today is the town of Ainsa, with an old fortress sitting atop of the old town. Then we'll head along the N260 for Benasque, a town set in the mountains for a look around (and some lunch) before we carry on to our hotel for the night.

Day 10+11 - Time in Andorra

76 miles - approx. 2hrs driving time

After a couple of hours drive into Andorra we will head straight to the capital - Andorra La Vella - for a look around the old town, before heading over one of Andorra's most scenic roads to our hotel.

Lots of excursions are possible the next day - from scenic drives to cable cars and ski resort towns, there is so much to do.

Day 12 - Catalonia

100 miles - approx. 2hrs driving time

We drive out of Andorra today and take a scenic route through France, heading for the town of Carcassonne and its medieval citadel.

What our customers say...

“Just had a great driving tour thru the Black Forest in Germany, onto Lichtenstein, Switzerland and home thru France. Organisation by Mike was first class and met up with some great people. And the scenery and smooth roads all added to a great trip. ”

“Had an amazing time with Making Tracks on the Switzerland and Liechtenstein tour. We visited so many interesting and spectacular places and the planning of the tour was meticulous. Whether you want to follow a planned route in convoy, or if you want to make adjustments to the routes to add other POI and go it alone, then MT are all over it with their eagerness to help so you get the tour that you want. Not only did I enjoy it from start to finish, but it was made extra special by the folks I met on the tour. Great memories to treasure and I've made some great forever friends along the way too. Eager to do another one... Highly recommended - 5 Stars.”
